

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Work|Life™ Self-Advocacy Conference: My Community & My Rights

Below are responses to questions regarding the Lifeworks' self-advocacy conference. Should you have any additional inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact Lifeworks' Disability Inclusion Consultants: worklifemn@lifeworks.org | 612-695-2289

I am unfamiliar with how to use Zoom. Can I still attend the conference?

Yes! One of our conference presenters, The Arc Minnesota, has put together a Zoom 101 course. When you register for the conference, you will be eligible to attend Zoom 101. The course is optional and takes place on Wednesday, July 8, 2020 at 2:00 PM CST.

How do I access the conference?

After registration is completed, participants will be sent the Zoom link to access the virtual conference on July 13, 2020 beginning at 8:30 AM.

What does my registration include?

Along with access to sessions, registration includes an electronic, informational packet filled with local resources.

How are the sessions structured?

Each session will include a presentation on a specific topic followed by a breakout discussion led by a peer mentor.

Will I be able to take a break during the conference?

We will wrap up five minutes before the end of each session to provide a brief break in between speakers. Of course, feel free to take longer breaks if needed.

Do I have to attend all of the sessions?

If you want to take a break or have another commitment, don't worry! You may attend one or all of the sessions.

Can I access the sessions after the conference?

The sessions will be recorded and will be accessible via a link and transcripts within one week of the workshop.

About Lifeworks

Since 1965, Lifeworks Services has been a champion for inclusion. Lifeworks was founded by families who recognized the importance of advocacy and breaking down barriers for people with disabilities. Through services that provide choice and foster community – as well as through partnerships with over 400 businesses – Lifeworks serves more than 2,800 Minnesotans with disabilities and their families each year. Learn more: www.lifeworks.org

This conference is made possible by the support of co-sponsorships funds from the Minnesota Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities.