Why did Lifeworks select this new system?

As a provider of self-directed services, Lifeworks wanted to offer a more user-friendly experience for participants that ensured compliance with Electronic Visit Verification – a federal mandate that Minnesota is implementing by December 1, 2021. After vetting options to upgrade our portal, it was clear that the new Timekeeping and Spending-System offered through the EVV app, powered by Cashé was the best selection. Along with allowing online time entry and approvals, this state-of-the-art platform combines an intuitive interface with sophisticated features to meet the needs of our participants and government requirements.

How is the new system different?

Using the new system, employees will enter their own hours and support managers will approve time online.

What does the new system look like?

The new system's interface is user-friendly, allowing for convenient time entry and approvals. Lifeworks will provide step-by-step visuals in the near future.

How do I access the new system?

The new system can be accessed from smartphone, computer, and tablet devices.
