Dear Lifeworks Community,

The 2022 Lifeworks Annual Report provides insight into who we are and our impact across Minnesota. With support and feedback from our community, Lifeworks continues to deliver high-quality services that honor choice and break down barriers to inclusion.

In July 2022, we refreshed the Lifeworks mission and vision as part of our 2022 – 2025 Strategic Plan. Our vision and mission emphasize accessibility, partnership, and community. They are rooted in the concept of change we want to build together. Our new vision and mission reinvigorate our core work.

In total, we partnered with 3,001 people with disabilities and their families in 2022, with 736 people receiving career support, 169 people connecting with their communities through Day Support, and 2,051 Minnesotans self-directing their care with Lifeworks. We partnered with 45 people with disabilities in Resource Navigation, supporting them in gaining the tools to take the next step.

Lifeworks leaned into our value of “You Lead – We Listen” by embracing a community-based model for our Day Support program in Brooklyn Park. We heard that 84% of our current clients at that facility most enjoy activities in the community, so we are centering their voices and experiences and took the first steps to ingrain our services our services into the fabric of our communities.

We also began focusing on co-creating culturally specific programs with Black, Indigenous, People of Color, and rural communities – bringing us closer to our vision of accessible, equitable, and diverse communities. Lifeworks is excited to be a partner to historically underserved communities so that together we can increase opportunity and access for all.

Lifeworks is confidently moving forward into the new year with our learnings and success from 2022. Thank you for your continued support of Lifeworks and for investing in a more inclusive community.

Gertrude Matamba-Mutasa

Lifeworks also serves as a PCA Choice and as an in-home licensed provider of Individualized Home Supports and Night Supervision.

Employment

Lifeworks is driven by the belief that all people can work and have a meaningful impact in their community. For 36 years, Lifeworks has worked to create a more diverse and inclusive workforce in Minnesota. We connect people to experiences that explore their interests, develop skills, and start or advance their careers.

In 2022, Lifeworks served 736 people in employment services. We supported 142 individuals in finding and starting new jobs – with 89% of those hired directly by the business. And we welcomed 66 new employers throughout the year who are committed to breaking down barriers to employment for people with disabilities.

Day Support

Lifeworks supported 169 people in Day Support Services in 2022 as they connected with their communities, engaged with their peers, and accessed technology. With the people we serve leading the way, we offered opportunities to build self-reliance, including: creative arts, career exploration, music therapy, skill building in the community, self-advocacy development, technology labs, multi-sensory environments, and so much more.

In 2022, Lifeworks partnered with 45 people with disabilities in Resource Navigation. This service is designed to help people with disabilities gain the tools to take the next step. With individuals leading the way, we assist them in exploring possibilities and building connections with the resources that align with their goals.

Our mission is to partner with people with disabilities to drive change by increasing opportunity and access in the community.

We envision accessible, equitable, and diverse communities.

Diversity and Inclusion at Lifeworks.

BY MUNA MOHAMED

My name is Muna Mohamed, and I am the Director of Diversity and Inclusion at Lifeworks. I am excited to work with the Lifeworks team, the people we partner with, and the broader Lifeworks community to find creative, intentional ways to move the needle forward and make our vision of accessible, equitable, and diverse communities a reality.

I am joining Lifeworks from an organizational development consultancy, where I supported clients in strategizing and maximizing their diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts. I have a Master's in Management with an emphasis on Organizational Diversity and Inclusion Leadership from the University of Dubuque and a Bachelor's in International Relations with a double minor in Political Science and Communication Studies from Minnesota State University, Mankato.

My passion for diversity, equity, and inclusion stems from first-hand experience of being discriminated against and knowing how that feels. I want to do everything possible to create communities where everyone feels like they belong and can access the services and opportunities they need to succeed.

As Director of Diversity and Inclusion at Lifeworks, I lead and implement proactive and progressive diversity, equity, inclusion, and access initiatives that will impact our communities, inspire others to follow suit, and weave DEIA into the fabric of the organization as a strategic priority.

At Lifeworks, we lean on our guiding compass and equity statement to support our work and align our values, mission, and DEIA goals.

LIFEWORKS DEIA GUIDING COMPASS

- ◆ Acknowledge that ignorance, discrimination, stigma, and prejudice exist.
- ◆ Believe every person deserves dignity and respect from the people we serve to our employees, community partners, and beyond.
- ◆ Commit to cultivating a culture that embraces difficult conversations and challenges barriers to an equitable and inclusive workplace.
- ◆ Dedicate resources to increase our knowledge and awareness and to challenge ourselves to understand our thoughts, feelings, and actions.
- ◆ Ensure that diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility are embedded into our policies and practices.

LIFEWORKS EQUITY STATEMENT

Lifeworks strives to be radically accessible, diverse, equitable, and inclusive. We appreciate the vibrancy of differences, center the voices of silenced and marginalized people, and champion universal rights.

We welcome change and work to reverse historic oppression. We promise to educate ourselves to end the dominant cultural practices of White supremacy, ableism, racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia, xenophobia, anti-Indigenous practices, religious oppression, and all other obstacles to personal authenticity and achievement. We support our partners and members of our community who are marginalized to restore justice and dignity.

At Lifeworks, we expect accountability from all employees and our Board of Directors. We know that we cannot be truly person-centered unless we celebrate all identities – emphasizing authenticity over conformity.

At Lifeworks, we partner with complete human beings with intersectional identities, recognizing that disability exists in every race, religion, gender, culture, and class and that most of us will experience disability at some point in our lives. We recognize we have made mistakes and will continue to evolve with humility and openness, placing psychological safety, equity, and belonging over comfort. Lifeworks recognizes that in the best interests of our community, we must approach disability through the lens of diverse perspectives.

We call upon our diverse community to hold us accountable.
